Safer Schools Newsletter

Secondary Edition Monday 11th May

Hi everyone, we hope you are all well and continuing to follow the governments advice whilst we continue in Lockdown. This is now our fourth newsletter and we've received some really positive feedback so far, so we hope you also enjoy this edition.

Norfolk Constabulary Safer Schools Team

Not quite sure where you can go for advice & support?
MAP (Mancroft Advice Project) advice line is open from 10.30am – 5.30pm Monday to Friday (except bank holidays). If you are aged 11-25, please call or email us if you:

- Need food
- Are worried about money and debt
- Need advice about housing or benefits
- Don't know where to get help for other problems or worries

TRENDING NOW...

The National Crime Agency & Cyber Security Challenge UK have announced that people aged 12-18 can access their online cyber skills platform CyberLand for free during the coming months. It can be found by typing cybergamesuk.com into your browser. Aged 14-17? There are online courses to learn and develop cyber security skills, find out more here: CyberFirst summer courses.

Have you heard of the Norfolk Constabulary Safeguarding Children Online Team? You can watch a video from them about online safety, online strangers and reporting inappropriate behaviour. Please click here: <https://youtu.be/kgwGTf341VU>
